

How 2 - Add a table

Using tables in word is a good way to display information.

Step 1: Click on insert and then click on the table icon.

Step 2: Move your mouse down over the squares until your orange squares match the amount of rows and columns you need. Click and the table will appear on your page.

Give It A Go!

